About our school

Holmer Green Junior School is a welcoming and inclusive school set in the heart of its local community. A close partnership between parents, children and staff ensures that we can provide a happy and safe environment where all can achieve their potential.

Through our school culture we communicate our values and expectations clearly. We set high standards in all aspects of school life. Respect and effort are fundamental. Our rules aim to foster honesty, thoughtfulness and self-discipline.

We are highly committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all our pupils and the successful applicant will be subject to satisfactory reference and appropriate DBS checks.

The role

The Cookery role involves supporting the delivery of food technology lessons. This role combines general teaching assistant duties with a focus on cookery, preparation, nutrition, and practical food skills.

The aim of the role is to deliver targeted lessons within small group settings. Delivering positive behavior management and developing positive trusting relationships with both children and adults will go a long way to helping those targets being met.

The candidate

You will be proactive in supporting the learning of the children within school by working closely with the teaching team and being confident in offering observations and ideas.

We are seeking a candidate who is looking to progress within our school and has aspirations to grow, learn and develop into an HLTA (Higher Level Teaching Assistant) or further.

Please give full details of experience to date including any specific experience you have in relation to the above.

Please apply online using the attached application form and send it to sbm@hgjs.co.uk or to the school address.

Closing date: Vacancy will be withdrawn upon successful appointment

Interviews: Upon application

Start date: January 2026
