

14 January 2022

Dear parents/ carers,

The holidays already feel like they happened quite some time ago. It has been lovely to see all the children show such enthusiasm for their learning and willingness to work hard. We are looking forward to Year 5 attending Woodrow next week, another small step towards normality.

Star of the week

Our stars of the week this week are children who show an understanding of others. Such understanding reflects our value of tolerance. Thank you to the following children for their compassion and understanding.

Elm:	Lucas Robinson	Pine:	Tilly Robertson	Maple:	Orla Lyons
Oak:	Joshua Motts	Beech:	Sophie Smith	Cherry:	Frankie Jones
Lime:	Tate Bonnick	Larch:	Ryan Cowling	Willow:	Joseph Needham

Term dates

Attached with today's newsletter is our provisional termly dates list. Dates continue to be subject to change depending on national and local guidelines but we remain hopeful that the events planned will be able to take place.

Parent information booklets

Our parent information booklets are being sent home today for your information and so you can support your child with their learning at home. This term, following requested feedback from Parents' forum, we have added further detail about our values and the key figures we are looking at who reflect each value. I hope you will find all of the information provided helpful.

Clubs

I hope that your child enjoyed any clubs they joined this week. Would you please ensure that you have paid for any clubs your child has signed up for as soon as possible using Parentmail PMX. Thank you.

Kind regards

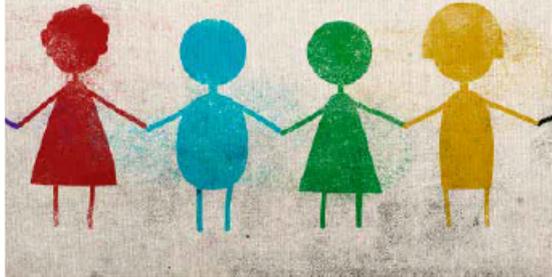

Rebecca Campbell

Headteacher
