

01 July 2022

Dear parents/ carers,

I have just arrived back from PGL having had the most fabulous week with the children and staff. I am so proud to be the head of such an amazing school. I hope that the children share many wonderful memories with you. I am going home to sleep.

Star of the week

It is the last week for our value of empathy and this week we have been looking for children who show empathy. I am sure this has been a very tricky decision given how the kindness so many children at our school show.
